VOCATION PRAYER/ORACIONES PARA LAS VOCACIONES

Loving God,
 You speak to us and nourish us through the life of this church community.
 In the name of Jesus, we ask you to send your Spirit to us so that men and women among us, young and old, will respond to your call to service and leadership in the church. We pray, especially, in our day, for those who hear your invitation to be a priest, sister, brother or deacon. May those who are opening their hearts & minds to your call be encouraged & strengthened through our enthusiasm in your service. Amen.

Amado Dios, tu nos hablas y nos nutres a través de la vida de esta comunidad eclesial.
 En el nombre de Jesús, pedimos que nos envíes tu Espíritu Para que hombres, mujeres, jóvenes y viejos, respondan a tu llamada de servicio y liderazgo en la iglesia.
 Oramos, especialmente, cada día, por los que escuchan tu invitación a ser sacerdote, hermana, hermano o diácono.
 Que abran sus corazones y sus mentes a tu llamado y sean fortalecidos a través de nuestro entusiasmo en tu servicio.
 Amén.

EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Bishops of the United States are calling for a three-year grassroots revival of devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. They believe that God wants to see a movement of Catholics across the United States, healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist—and sent out in mission “for the life of the world.”

These three years will culminate in the first National Eucharistic Congress in the United States in almost fifty years. Almost a hundred thousand Catholics will join together in Indianapolis for a once-in-a-lifetime pilgrimage toward the “source and summit” of our Catholic faith.

FATHER'S DAY

Love Offering Envelopes for Father’s Day are available for your use. You can write the name or names of fathers on the envelope. They will be remembered and prayed for collectively in all our masses for the month of June.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

In today's Gospel, Jesus shares his mission to proclaim the kingdom of heaven with his disciples. The signs of the kingdom's presence consist of the work that Jesus has already been doing: the sick are cured, lepers are cleansed, demons are driven out, and the dead are raised to life. The disciples are sent to continue doing the work that Jesus has begun. This is a moment of transition in Matthew's Gospel. The focus has shifted from the ministry of Jesus to the work of the community that he has inaugurated. More than any other Gospel, Matthew's Gospel elaborates on the work of the Church, which is to continue after Jesus' death and resurrection. The Gospel reports that Jesus commissions twelve disciples. Many scholars believe that the twelve disciples symbolize the twelve tribes of Israel. It designates, therefore, continuity between Israel and the Church. Matthew lists the names of the twelve disciples, as do Mark and Luke. Matthew also uses the word apostle when referring to the Twelve. The word apostle means “one who is sent.” In this context, Matthew is calling attention to the mission that the twelve disciples are being given. They are sent by Jesus to proclaim the kingdom of heaven in word and deed. As Jesus sent his disciples to continue his work and mission, so too the Church is sent by Jesus. The Church is his continuing presence on earth. Every member of the Church is sent by Jesus to contribute to this mission.
